

Who We Are

Digney York Associates is a full-service, industry-leading interior renovation contractor serving hospitality clients nationwide for over 30 years with an excellent record of delivering quality work on time and at great value. Established in 1985 by Jay Weiss, Digney York developed an innovative, fast-track method of renovating hotels which minimized revenue displacement and guest impact, resulting in a new level of value to the owner.

Digney York's success is also built on its unique commitment to develop long-standing relationships with a cadre of high-quality, loyal sub-contractors that travel coast to coast. Headquartered in the Washington D.C. metropolitan area and licensed in 48 states, Digney York employs a seasoned team of dedicated professionals with diverse backgrounds and wide-ranging skillset, who are intensely focused on exceeding client expectations.
